

Patient Advocate International Coronavirus app

Simple, safe, secure, complete. Always up-to-date, always at hand. Multilingual, anywhere.

Give your employees all they need to be informed and empowered about Coronavirus on their mobile devices. Customized for your company. Customized for your locations, WHO, CDC, etc. Customized for your employees.

All three in one place

For your employees

Download from Apple or Android app store
Up and running straight away

Get the information you need

- All the latest information from your Government and local healthcare system
- Always available on mobile devices (even if you lose Internet connection)
- Automatic updates
- Automatic alert on mobile devices when information changes

Get the help you need

- One tap to call the Patient Advocate Nurse Helpline (if enabled) - 24 hour, English speaking
- One tap to local Emergency Services

Track your personal progress

- Personal symptom tracker
- Update every day
- Add any symptoms
- See your personal trends

How am I doing

- See how you compare with others
- See where you are as the pandemic evolves

For your company

Up to date, reliable information in the hands of all your employees

Keep your employees in the know

- See it in real time
- Automatic updates
- Automatic alert on mobile device when updated

Personalise our Coronavirus web portal

- Add your own company guidance and policies
- Any change automatically updated on the app
- Only goes to your employees
- Automatic alert on mobile device when updated
- All employees kept fully informed

Be first to know

- When your employees are recovering
- When to reopen for business, subject to local government policy
- See real time reports and analytics
- See real time symptom trends across your employees

Stay in touch with your employees

- Add your own messages and update
- Just to your own employees
- Automatically sent to the app
- Automatic alert on the mobile device to read

Patient Advocate ensures that all client data is collected and processed in compliance with GDPR and that it is adequate, relevant, lawful and limited to what is necessary in relation to the purpose required. We ensure all personal data is stored in a manner that provides appropriate security and confidentiality. All client data is held electronically on our GDPR compliant management system. The client can at any time request disclosure of data we store about them.